ABSTRACT:

In many ways, the one certainty of investing is volatility. Volatility can trigger emotional responses that cause investors to make irrational decisions, raising the chances of losing money. Wise investors stay the course with the understanding that investment success is not just a matter of how well you do in up markets but also how well you weather the downside. We will discuss the points to remember when the market is experiencing volatility.

BIO:

In financial services, as in any business, a reputation for quality service and integrity is earned by creating satisfied, knowledgeable clients. As a Financial Advisor, Ali Bavarian has developed keen insight into building effective relationships. He understands each client's need for investment advice and the corresponding level of service necessary to help them reach their financial goals.

Before entering the financial-services industry in 2005, Ali served as Business Development Manager for Compunet eBusiness Group in Irvine, CA. He later joined Edward Jones as a financial advisor in Trabuco Canyon, CA. Joining Raymond James Financial Services as an independent Financial Advisor in April 2011, Ali focuses on helping his clientele with their unique wealth management and retirement planning needs. He can create qualified-retirement plans for businesses and non-profit organizations, as well as provide life-insurance and estate planning services through tax-efficient strategies.

Ali holds the Series 7 and 66 securities registrations. Ali earned his bachelor's degrees in business economics from UCSB.
